

Las Madrecitas Fashion Program to Feature Sand-and-Star Stylings

ANTICIPATION—Mmes. Aronold Martin (left), Joseph Rohlinger, and Walter Hetz of Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to Orthopedic Hospital, receive leis from Mrs. Harold Roberts of the Polynesian in preparation for the auxiliary's benefit fashion show.

Charity to Benefit Children

"Sand, Sun, and Stars" will be the theme for the Las Madrecitas spring fashion show and luncheon Saturday at the Polynesian Restaurant.

Guests will view professional models in a parade of resort and vacation ensembles against the Polynesian's South-Sea decor. Emphasis will be on beach, desert, and shipboard wear. Commentary will be by Don Craig. Proceeds from the event will aid in equipping and maintaining the pediatric ward of the Los Angeles Orthopedic Hospital.

Mmes. Glen Kleinhesselink and C. O. Harvey are in charge of arrangements. Their committee comprises Mmes. Richard Barbour, favors; Mel Margulies, prizes; Charles McKenny and Harold Leslie Jr., publicity; William Hoffman, programs; and Louis Bednarchnik and Frank Weller, tickets.

Fete Parisienne Planned May 14 by Hospital Aids

Little Company of Mary Auxiliary will borrow a theme from Montmartre and the Left Bank for its Fete Parisienne Ball May 14, 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Revell, 16 Eastfield Rd., Rolling Hills.

Guests will dance to the music of the Misochi Novi Trio amid murals depicting sidewalk cafes, Paris streets scenes, and can-can girls.

Mrs. Cliffon Hudson is designing the murals in colors of shocking pink and blue.

Mmes. Laurence Smith and Eric A. Gude are chairmen of the event. Assisting them are Mmes. Theodore McNeer and George Schneider, entertainment; George McNeill, refreshments; Howard M. Schott, Lyle J. O'Hara, and Johnson Lovett, publicity and Donald W. Bryant, tickets.

Reservations may be made by calling FA 8-5870, or FA 8-7445.

Miss Herrington Crowned Queen of Gamma Iota

Miss Linda Herrington will be crowned Miss Chi Gamma Iota of 1960, queen of the beachcomber's Ball, at El Camino College, Saturday.

Sharing the royal spotlight with Miss Herrington will be Princesses Louette Martello, a graduate of St. Mary's Academy at Los Angeles, and Carolyn Perko, a graduate of Mira Costa High.

Members of the El Camino Vet's Club, Chi Gamma Iota, selected the three coeds this week. Voting was based on poise, personality, character, and appearance.

PTA News

May Day Celebration Planned at Calle Mayor

Calle Mayor PTA will sponsor a May Day celebration Saturday starting with a May pole dance and lunch on the school grounds at noon.

Highlight of the event will be a magic show by Larry Nelson at 1 and 2 p.m. in the cafeteria.

Other attractions will include a fish pond, and booths featuring games of ring toss, bucket pitch, and bean-bag toss.

The afternoon will conclude with a baseball game between eighth-grade boys and their fathers.

Proceeds from the event will benefit community projects.

International Musicales Viewed at Perry School

Perry PTA viewed a program entitled, "Music Around the World" by the kindergarten classes at a recent meeting in the school cafeteria.

Reports were given teachers, Robert Skellings, Miss Marjorie Carey, and Mrs. Frances Fox, on the multi-grade system. A question period followed.

Lloyd Jones, curriculum coordinator of the school district, recently delegate to the National School Board Convention in Atlantic City, addressed the gathering.
